ATTRACTIONS

Yaowarat

Voted as one of the world's coolest roads by Time Out, Yaowarat (aka Bangkok's Chinatown) is the center of Thai-Chinese culture in the city, as manifested through generational food stalls and restaurants like Nai Ek Roll Noodle, Jok One Table, and New Kuang Meng. Come nighttime, both sides of the neighborhood's main road turn into a giant street food hub that welcomes dozens of hungry visitors.

Yaowarat Road

Museum Siam

Formerly the office of the Ministry of Commerce, this 100-year-old building is now Museum Siam, an innovative archive that renders the rich history of Thailand as a fun-filled experience through contemporary presentations and creative features. Its outdoor space also hosts a lot of art and cultural fairs and events.

Sanam Chai Road,
Phra Nakhon, Bangkok

Asiatique

Taking up an expansive location next to the Chao Phraya River, this popular riverside bazaar offers fun and unique shopping, dining, drinking, and entertainment experiences at the likes of bar-on-a-boat Sirimahannop, steakhouse and glass pavilion Crystal Grill House, and Bangkok's answer to the London Eye.

Charoenkrung Road,
Bang Kho Laem, Bangkok

The Grand Palace and Wat Phra Kaew

Situated in the heart of Bangkok's Old Town, these two monumental attractions deserve at least one visit. Get inspired by magnificent Thai architecture while paying respects to the widely revered Emerald Buddha. Don't forget to check out the newly opened Maharaj Tunnel.

Na Phra Lan Road, Phra Nakhon

Benchakitti Park

This thoughtfully designed park in downtown Bangkok gives urbanites a space where they can exercise (with various facilities available), relax, and walk their furry four-legged friends. Drop by at night to see the park all lit up.

Ratchadaphisek Road,
Klong Toey, Bangkok

Bangkok Art & Culture Centre (BACC)

Bangkok's biggest and most beloved publicly-run arts venue hosts an ever-changing line-up of exhibitions and events by local and international artists and organizers. The massive structure is also home to a theater, coffee shops, souvenir stores, and a library.

Rama I Road, Pathumwan,
Bangkok

Jodd Fairs

As far as night market experiences in Bangkok go, the vintage-inspired Jodd Fairs is the most popular one right now. Over 800 vendors comprise the huge space, selling everything from Thai and international street food to handcrafted souvenirs.

Rama IX Road, Huay Kwang,
Bangkok

Mahanakorn SkyWalk

Unforgettable 360-degree views of the Thai capital are promised at this rooftop observation deck at the iconic King Power Mahanakhon. Set on the building's 78th floor and rising up to a height of 314 meters, the glass-floored skywalk allows you to see as far as the curving path of the Chao Phraya River as it runs down to the Gulf of Thailand.

Naradhiwas Road, Sathorn, Bangkok

RESTAURANTS

BANGKOK RESTAURANTS BARS AND CAFES

Supanniga Eating Room, Tha Tien

Set in a two-story wooden house on the banks of the Chao Phraya River, this Thai restaurant serves many rare dishes from Trat and Khon Kaen, such as braised pork with cowa leaves. Come during the sunset hours and enjoy a Thai-inspired sundowner while drinking in one of the best riverside views in town.

Somboon Seafood

Since 1969, this Thai-Chinese restaurant has been the benchmark for stir-fried yellow curry crab, which countless other restaurants try to recreate (but don't even come close). Come in a big group to collectively enjoy a seafood feast that includes other must-eat dishes like steamed shrimp with glass noodles, deep-fried fish with sweet fish sauce, and tom yum koong.

169/7-12 Surawong Road,
Suriya Wong, Bang Rak,
Bangkok, 10500
Open daily 11:00-22:00
Tel: 0 2233 3104

Rungreung Noodle

A long queue of hungry diners is a common sight at this long-standing noodle shop on Soi Sukhumvit 26. Order the tom yum, which comes with refreshing hints of lime, nicely flavored minced pork, and aromatic pepper.

10/3 Soi Sukhumvit 26,
Khlong Tan, Khlong Toei, Bangkok, 10110
Open daily 08:00-17:00
Tel: 08 4527 1640

Kway Chap Mr. Joe

Recognized with a Bib Gourmand distinction on the Michelin Guide, this eatery is a street food essential when on a restaurant crawl in Bangkok. Try the kway chap roll noodles in hot peppery soup, which comes with impossibly crispy pork belly bits.

313/7 Chan Road, Wat Phrayo Krai, Bang Kho Laem, Bangkok, 10120
Open daily 08:00-16:30
Tel: 0 2213 3007

Nai Uan Yentafo (Sao Chingcha)

For over five decades, this eatery near the Giant Swing has been appeasing hungry bellies with scrumptious yen ta fo (pink noodle soup). Every ingredient and topping that goes into the bowl is delicately made from scratch, from the fish and pork balls, to the pink fermented tofu sauce, to the sweet braised pork.

41 Soi Nawa, Sao Chingcha, Phra Nakhon, Bangkok 10200
Open Mon-Fri 09:00-20:00, Sat-Sun 09:00-16:30
Tel: 0 2622 0701

Here Hai

Treat yourself to Surat Thani-imported fresh seafood in the heart of nightlife hub Ekkamai. Here Hai's crab fried rice sells like hotcakes, thanks to generous portions and its wok-fried flavours and aroma.

112, 1 Ekkamai Road, Khlong Tan Nuea, Watthana, Bangkok, 10110

CAFES

The Baristo Asian Style

Avid café hoppers in Chiang Mai are familiar with this brand, which now has seven coffee shops across Chiang Mai. This particular branch attracts more patrons than the others, thanks to its photogenic wooden decor and a slow bar where coffee connoisseurs can savor specialty cuppas.

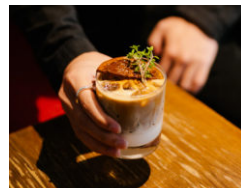

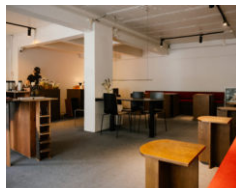

200 Suthep Road, Suthep, Mueang Chiang Mai, Chiang Mai, 50200
Open daily 08:00-18:00
Tel: 09 2455 3947

MARS.cnx

This futuristic space takes you on a trip to Mars through projection mapping. Feel how it is to sip coffee and nibble homemade pastries on the Red Planet and in outer space.

27 Arak Road, Si Phum, Mueang Chiang Mai, Chiang Mai, 50200
Open daily 08:30-18:00
Tel: 09 1092 9999

Biguri

Enjoy homemade donuts at this cute little whitewashed café. The classic variant, stuffed with silky-smooth milk cream is much loved, as well as the scrumptious choux sticks.

12/3 Soi Sai Nam Phueng, Suthep, Mueang, Chiang Mai, 50200
Open Mon-Tue and
Thu-Sat 09:00-18:00
Tel: 09 8329 7673

Self

Coffees and mocktails created with homemade syrups can be enjoyed at this modern retro space. For something unexpected, try Citrus Boy, a coffee drink with hints of orange and vanilla.

9 Charoen Prathet Road, Chang Moi, Mueang, Chiang Mai, 50100
Open daily 09:00-17:00
Tel: 06 1535 5417

The Continental Bar

Look for an out-of-place bookshelf on the third floor of a building on Nimman Road to discover this slick watering hole inspired by The Red Circle nightclub in John Wick. The inspiration extends to the cocktails, such as the gin-based, lychee-infused Helen, named after the titular character's ex-wife.

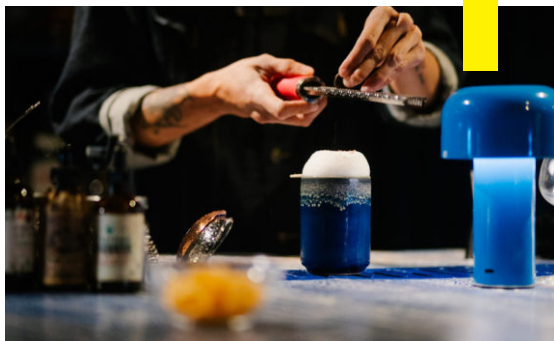

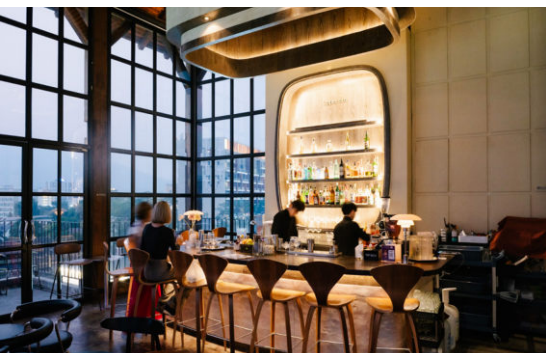

53 Nimmana Haeminda Road (Soi 5), Suthep, Mueang, Chiang Mai, 50200
Open daily 18:00-00:00
DM via Instagram @thecontinental.bar for reservations

Noir / cmi - Jazz interactive space

Situated in Diamond Riverside Hotel's parking lot, this Brutalist-style bar comes alive at night with live jazz performances and the bustle of night owls prowling the space with creative cocktails in hand.

33/11 Charoen Prathet Road,
Chang Moi, Mueang, Chiang Mai, 50100
Open daily 19:00-00:00

Upper5th

Set on the fifth floor of One Nimman, this rooftop venue affords stunning views of the sun setting over Doi Suthep and the entire Nimman neighborhood. Take in this sight while sipping on the refreshing gin-based Honey Yuzu.

One Nimman (5/F), Nimmana Haeminda Road, Suthep, Mueang, Chiang Mai, 50200
Open daily 18:00-00:00
Tel: 06 4624 6928

Midlife Crisis

This cocktail bar addresses the realities of life by stamping them on tongue-in-cheek neon signs that are displayed all over the place. The tipples here are as creative as the vibes, such as a rye whiskey-based tiple with a hint of pandan.

2/8 Chang Moi Kao Road,
Chang Moi, Muang, Chiang Mai, 50300
Open Wed-Mon 16:00-00:00

Fri 10:00-21:00
Tel: 08 3588 4663

Kanomsen Khunya

After establishing a successful kanom jeen (fermented rice noodles) restaurant in Phitsanulok, Kanomsen Khunya set out to expand its reach to Pattaya. Inexpensive yet slurp-ilicious, the restaurant's freshly made noodles can be paired with a variety of home-made Thai curries, from coconut milk curry to fiery curry from the south.

Chaiyopornvitee Road, Nong Prue, Bang Lamung,
Chon Buri, 20150
Open Thu-Sun 08:30-16:00
Tel: 08 2202 2262

Yum Munzpak

This three-year-old restaurant has climbed to the top of Pattaya's spicy food, with help from its signature salad, which comes with a spicy dressing with or without pungent fermented fish. Yum Munzpak also serves a great selection of Isaan fare, including Tum Luang Prabang, a zesty salad with thinly sliced papaya.

Sukhumvit Road, Pattaya City,
Bang Lamung, Chon Buri, 20150
Open daily 11:00-22:00

Find out what locals have for breakfast at Chokchai Dim Sum, where you can have an early feast of localized steamed or fried dim sum. For big breakfast eaters, the rice congee, curry with fermented rice noodles, and chicken rice are highly recommended.

46/2 Mae Luan Road, Wichit, Mueang, Phuket, 83000
Open daily 04:00-12:00
Tel: 0 7623 4491

TIP: Order from Grab and enjoy some of Phuket's best street eats in the comfort of your hotel room.

Boonrat Dimsum

This established dim sum spot continues to impress countless locals and foreigners with its generously portioned Hokkien-style pork, prawn, and crab shumai that comes with a spicy dipping sauce. Come during the weekend and treat yourself to the bak kut teh (braised pork rib soup).

52 Tilok Utis 2 Road, Talat Yai, Mueang, Phuket, 83000

Open daily 06:00-10:00

Tel: 09 9615 9697

The Charm Dining Gallery

Situated in a century-old shophouse, The Charm Dining Gallery is one of the very few restaurants on the island that serves Peranakan fare, a culinary culture that combines Chinese and Malay influences. Don't miss staples like too mee (hot fish curry), pork belly stir-fried in shrimp paste and pineapples, and sesame oil-infused fish soup.

93 Dibuk Road, Talat Nuea, Mueang, Phuket, 83000

Open Mon-Tue, Thu-Sun 11:00-21:00

Tel: 0 7653 0199

Kaab Gluay

Located in entertainment district Patong, Kaab Gluay is known for its authentic tongue-burning southern Thai curries. But the restaurant is also worth a visit for its kaeng som soup with sea bass and gien tod (deep-fried Phuket-style sausage).

58/3 Phrabaramee Road, Pa Tong, Kathu, Phuket, 83150

Open daily 10:00-23:30

Tel: 0 7634 6832

Pae-Teaw Noodles

For over eight decades, this Cantonese-style noodle shop has been churning out its version of yew hoo eng chai or crispy noodles topped with morning glory, seafood, roast pork, and a zesty dressing. Make it worth your while by having your noodles with the eatery's beloved fish balls.

4/11-12 Satun Road, Talat Nuea, Mueang, Phuket, 83000

Open daily 10:00-19:00

Tel: 08 9826 7899

EAT ALL DAY

Whether it's the gooey shumai or hot-and-spicy tom yam goong, you can order from some of Phuket's notable eateries via Grab to enjoy the local flavors without having to worry about transportation.

CAFES

MOST FAVORITE

Tree O'clock Cafe

This chic and modern spot is a magnet for café hoppers who want to enhance their social media with cool interiors and pretty food shots. A common order is the Coconut Pour Over, a cup of robusta with a tempting roasted coconut aroma. Patrons also love the Snooze mocktail, an invigorating drink that sets you up for more adventures.

Villa Qobalah Phuket, Banya-Bangjo Road, Moo 4,
Si Sunthon, Thalang, Phuket, 83110

Campus Coffee Roasters

Located in the heart of Old Phuket Town, Campus Coffee Roasters is a pitstop for caffeine connoisseurs who appreciate that the shop roasts locally and internationally sourced beans in-house. The Dirty Coffee, the shop's signature concoction, offers a taste of Southern Thai flavors with hints of roasted coconut.

6 Krabi Road, Talat Nuea,
Mueang, Phuket, 83000
Open daily 08:00-18:00
Tel: 09 2218 9292

Day & Night

Day & Night takes its name seriously by serving all-day delights. The coffee mixed with Earl Grey tea and the juice drink La Boisson De Kanda are usual orders, along with the salted egg brioche.

1/5 Dibuk Road, Talat Yai,
Mueang, Phuket, 83000
Open daily 11:00-00:00
Tel: 0 7621 9788

Shan Coffee

Hidden in a small alley in Old Phuket Town, this café is worth seeking out for its coffee that's brewed the traditional way and authentic snacks. Plus, the old Chinese furniture is a bonus for those who love vintage design.

74 Krabi Road, Talat Nuea, Mueang, Phuket, 83000
Open Tue-Sun 10:30-18:00
Tel: 09 7235 1824

Samutr Bar

Samutr Bar makes the most of its photogenic beachfront location in Patong by installing floor-to-ceiling windows that let both sunshine and the moonlight in. Order the vodka-heavy Liquid Sunshine or the refreshing Amalfi Spritz Cocktail.

Amari Phuket

2 Meun-Ngern Road, Pa Tong, Amphoe Kathu, Phuket, 83150

Open daily 13:00-23:00

Tel: 0 7634 0106

Casa Boho

Up on the hill, overlooking Kamala Beach, lies this Latin American-inspired venue that provides a 180-degree view of Phuket's gorgeous sunsets. Casa Boho comprises three floors, with a game room on the first, a pool and daybeds on the second, and a bar on the third. Try the gin-based Red Velvet, which will charge up your palate with a blast of raspberry.

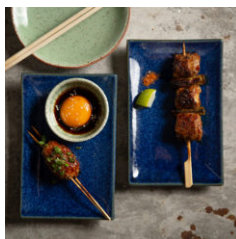

Hyatt Regency Phuket Resort,
16/12 Moo 6, Kamala, Kathu,
Phuket, 83150
Open daily 12:00-22:00
Tel: 0 7623 1234

Dibuk House

For some time, this stylish bar has been representative of the cocktail scene of Phuket. Old-meets-new vibes come together in both Dibuk's loft-style architecture and crafted concoctions that focus on local ingredients. Recommended cocktails are the negroni-inspired La Gloria and the umeshu-infused Butterfly Effect.

39/2 Dibuk Road, Talat Yai,
Mueang, Phuket, 83000
Open daily 18:30-00:00
Tel: 08 4989 9525

Cloud Yard

This izakaya-slash-bar in an open air courtyard of Phuket Old Town welcomes everyone to unwind over delicious skewers and Japan-imported umeshu.
